

DELLAMARTA CONSULTING- PARTNER CONSULTANT

ALASDAIR ROY

I am an Australian based Consultant Psychologist with over 25 years' experience working with children and young people.

I provide specialist advice to national and international organisations regarding service provision for children and young people.

My areas of expertise include: children and young people in the Child Protection, Youth Justice, and Mental Health systems; safeguarding children and young people (Child Safe Practice); engaging and consulting with children and young people; policy and program review, development, and implementation; delivery of tailored education and training; investigating complaints and concerns about service delivery; and statutory oversight and advocacy.

I have a Master's degree in counselling psychology, and full registration with the Psychology Board of Australia, the British Psychological Society, and the Singapore Psychological Society.

I am also an Associate of the School of Humanities and Behavioural Sciences, Singapore University of Social Sciences.

Between 2008-2016, I was the Children and Young People Commissioner in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT), and, between 1997-2008, I was the Children and Young People Advocate in the ACT.

In 2014, I was an ACT Australian of the Year Finalist for my work promoting and protecting the rights of children and young people; in 2015, was awarded a Churchill Fellowship to examine Child Safe/Child Friendly practice in Iceland, Norway and Sweden; and in 2016 was awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for services to children and young people.
